C L A S S W I L L

To you who are left behind, we leave these, our best known characteristics and our outstanding abilities. May you have as much fun with them as we have had.

Ann Young leaves her good grades to Alvin Douglas and her place on the ball teams to Lola Jean Mansell. Bob (Mule) Middleton leaves his haircut to anyone who wants it, and his long, dark eyelashes to Mildred Ruckdeschell. Betty Davis leaves her long blond hair to Steve Romanchuck. John Cline wills his quietness to Mary Lou Grayum. Sharon Jones leaves her to Dorothy Axsom and her pleasant smile to Josephine Stagg. Vernon Lunceford leaves some of his height to "Sonny" Graham. Walter Grayum leaves his ability to have his lessons prepared by class-time to Don Adams, and his yearbook worries to next year's editor. Roger Lane wills his trumpet playing abilities to Arthur Lee Wilkinson. Betty Buzzard leaves her ability to stay with only one man for more than a week at a time to Lillian Jones. Shirley Larson leaves her very friendly nature to the lucky person who can get it. Doris Stephenson wills her senior wedding bells to the first junior who takes the big step. Patty Wood leaves her ability to concentrate on her studies to Jimmy Cummins. Florence Canfield leaves her muscles to Gene Scofield. Esther Agnew leaves the pieces of her American history to any person who can find them. Lois Powell wills her temper to Wayne Webb.

Wilma Arvin leaves her beautiful eyes to Eddie Morrow and her slim figure to Gene Perry. Gary Mainard leaves all his jokes to Georgia Rae Oskins and his way with the girls to Bill Dean. Ed Lawson wills his place on the basketball team to Dwight Heath. Jack Hackley wills his boxing ability to John Williams, and along with Daren Davis , wills his knack of thinking up excuses to Gary Costin. Also Daren leaves his guard position on the football team to Billy Williams. Paul Clampitt leaves his Model-A to the school's bicycle rider, Don Scofield, and his girl troubles to Jimmy Martin.

John Greer wills his good-naturedness to Patsy Shaw, and his ability to be industrious to Joan Adams. Keith Wheaton leaves his seat in the back of the study hall to Nancy Baker. Ray Morrison leaves his left-half-back position to David Heath and his parts in the one-act plays to "Sonny" Webb.

To the HIGH SCHOOL we leave you all the fun in school you can possibly have and success in all sports and activities.

To THE TEACHERS: we leave you nothing but bad memories of this class. But we do thank you for the innumerable things you have done for us--and thanks for the knowledge, whether little or much, which you have helped us to attain.

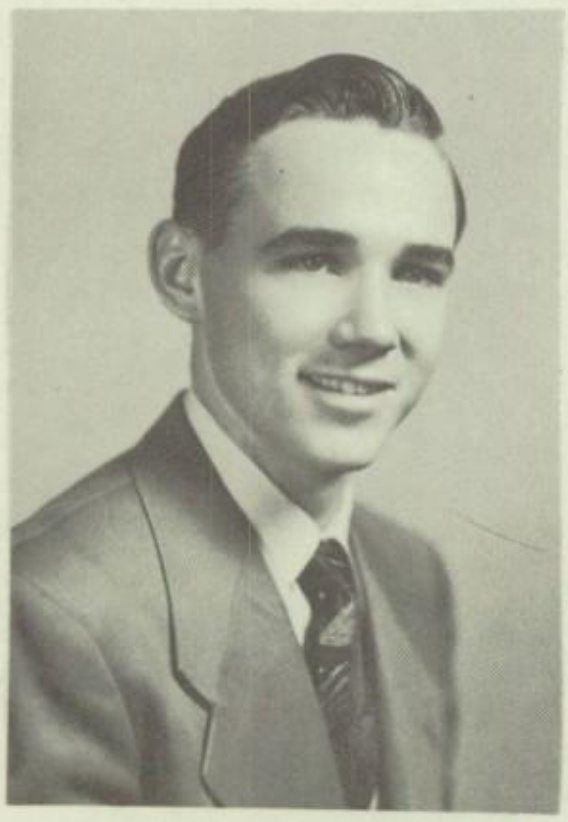
MOST POPULAR BOY



WALTER GRAYUM

(Senior)

It is the custom of our school to elect the Panther Highlights Queen and Most Popular Boy from the Senior Class. Each student in the high school casts a vote for his choice for each position.

SHADES OF 1971

How time flies! Twenty years have passed since we were graduated from old Oak Grove High. From my seat on this cloud I have had a perfect view of what my one-time class mates have been doing the last few years. Let me tell you some of the main achievements they have accomplished since graduating back in 1951.

Captain Bob Middleton is at the moment on his ship somewhere in the Atlantic Ocean. It is rumored that he is retiring soon. There's John Greer who after years of hard work is head of Jetic Jet Engine Corporation. Sharon Jones has been kept very busy the last few years taking care of her twin boys. Doris Stephenson and her husband are now residing on their southern plantation growing peanuts. Ann Young was just lately appointed Dean of Radcliffe.

Patty Wood's latest book, "How to Meet the Public," is selling over a thousand copies a month. Keith Wheaton is now owner of some quantity of wheat land in Kansas and is doing very well. Managing Editor of the New York Sun, Vernon Lunceford has just started a campaign to clean up the slums of New York. The now-famous missionary, Esther Agnew, who just returned from India, is lecturing throughout the country.

John Cline, better known to us now as the "loud-mouth comedian," is taking Broadway by storm. The famous mathematican and master of physics, Walter Grayum, is simplifying the newly discovered fourth dimension to the 100 I. Q. standard. Florence Canfield and her husband, who is junior partner in the Mainard Construction Co., are living happily in Kansas City. Gary Mainard is also a partner in the firm and soon hopes to start a company of his own. Roger Lane and his orchestra are playing in some of the classiest night spots throughout the country. By the way, Lane's star trombonist is Paul Clampitt.

Daren Davis and "Killer" Jack Hackley, one of the most famous and successful fighter-manager teams of the boxing profession, are planning to retire soon. Betty Davis and Wilma Arvin, two of the leading models in New York are working in Fifth Avenue's most exclusive shops. Betty Buzzard, world famous clothes designer, has just returned from Paris, where she attended a designers convention. Ed Lawson has just retired from the professional sport of basketball. Ed played with the Phillips Oilers in the newly-formed International Basketball League and established some scoring records that will probably not be broken for some time.

Shirley Larson is now the proprietor of a famous rest resort in the Colorado mountains. My name is Ray Morrison. My success was short-lived, for I died ten years ago while piloting the first rocket ship that tried to reach the moon.

Thirteen-year-old Wilbur Maxwell is probably the only member of the masculine gender who feels he knows all there is to know about women, and Wilbur says it in no uncertain terms. The reason is that his two sisters, Connie and Betty Lou, have been getting everything they've ever wanted for years, and poor Wilbur hasn't been getting anything. Not one thing. Not even a nickel. Furthermore, he knows women enough to know that he'll never get anything as long as they're around. Until one of them gets married he won't get a thing--especially the little horse he's been wanting for so long. So Wilbur and best pal, Hercules Nelson, set out to get sister Connie married to Eddie Anderson, her boy friend of the moment. Papa Maxwell hears the boys talking over their plans, and gets the very wrong idea that Connie and Eddie are on the verge of eloping, so he decides to step in and do what a good father should do--throw the boy bodily out of the house. . .

To the Boosters Club and all others who have helped in the preparation and publication of this, the fifth volume of Panther Highlights: the thanks and appreciation of the Senior Class--and the Annual Staff, in particular. Our thanks to the merchants who have purchased advertising space in this book--thereby helping us to finance this project. And to the teachers and student body--our thanks for your contribution to this book. May this book be a source of joy and pride to all in the days and years to come.
